Organized by: Third Year Pharmacy Students

For: Final Year Pharmacy Students

College: Late Lakshmibai College of Pharmacy, Kalamb-Walchandnagar

Date: 13th June 2025

Venue: College Auditorium Hall

➤ Introduction

A memorable farewell party was organized by the Third Year Pharmacy students of Late Lakshmibai College of Pharmacy, Kalamb-Walchandnagar, on 13th June 2025, to bid adieu to the Final Year Pharmacy batch. The event was filled with love, emotions, and a sense of nostalgia as the juniors came together to show their appreciation for the senior batch.

The farewell aimed not only to celebrate the completion of a crucial chapter in the seniors' academic life but also to send them off with good wishes, blessings, and a memorable experience. The preparations, arrangements, and execution were done with utmost care and enthusiasm by the T.Y. B.Pharm students under the guidance of their class teacher Ms. Shruti Kore.

➤ Sequence of the Farewell Program

1. Welcome and Inauguration (Ribbon Cutting Ceremony)

The program began at 10:00 AM with a formal inauguration marked by a ribbon-cutting ceremony at the entrance of the decorated seminar hall. This honor was performed by Final Year Representative Mr. Nishant Phunde, along with Ms. Ulka Mote, class teacher of the final year. The act symbolized the ceremonial opening of the event and the warm welcome of the final-year students into their farewell celebration.

The hall was adorned with beautiful decorations including flowers, banners, lights, and a heartfelt "Farewell 2025" backdrop, creating a joyful and nostalgic atmosphere.

2. Traditional Lamp Lighting Ceremony

To invoke positive energy and the blessings of Goddess Saraswati, the traditional lamp lighting ceremony followed. Principal Uttekar Sir, Ms. Ulka Mote, Ms. Shruti Kore, Guest of Honor Akhade Madam, and selected students lit the ceremonial lamp.

The lighting of the lamp symbolized knowledge, learning, and the light of a bright future that lies ahead for the graduating students. A Saraswati Vandana was also played in the background to enhance the sacredness of the moment.

3. Emotional Speeches and Sharing of Experiences by Final Year Students

Several final-year students were invited to share their thoughts, memories, and feelings about their time at the college. Some became emotional as they spoke about the journey that began four years ago and how the institution helped shape them into who they are today.

They spoke about the support of their teachers, the friendships they formed, the academic and extracurricular experiences, and the personal growth they underwent. These heartfelt speeches brought tears to the eyes of many in the audience, especially teachers who had watched them grow over the years.

4. Speech by Final Year Class Teacher – Ms. Ulka Mote

Ms. Ulka Mote, who had closely mentored the outgoing batch, delivered a deeply moving and inspiring speech. She praised the efforts, sincerity, and achievements of the students throughout their academic journey. She also offered words of wisdom and encouragement, urging the students to continue working hard, stay grounded, and always uphold ethical values in the professional world.

Her words were not just emotional but filled with pride, as she wished her students great success and happiness in the future.

5. Principal's Address – Dr. Uttekar P.S.

The college principal, Uttekar Sir, addressed the gathering with a visionary speech. He congratulated the final-year students for reaching this milestone and acknowledged the hard work they had put in. He reminded them that their journey as pharmacists begins now, and with it comes a responsibility to serve society with compassion and integrity.

He encouraged students to never stop learning, to innovate, and to remain committed to the values instilled in them during their time at the college.

6. Guest Speech – Akhade Madam

The special guest of the day, Akhade Madam, delivered an inspiring speech filled with practical advice and life lessons. With years of experience in the pharmacy and education sectors, she highlighted the importance of ethical responsibility, continual skill development, and staying updated with industry trends.

She also appreciated the college for its commitment to academic excellence and student development, and applauded the students for their confidence and potential.

7. Felicitation Ceremony for Final Year Students

One of the most awaited parts of the program was the felicitation ceremony. Final year students were individually called to the stage and presented with mementos, certificates, and tokens of appreciation by the third-year students and faculty.

Each student received a personal congratulatory message, and their achievements were recognized. The ceremony was a celebration of their hard work, dedication, and the successful completion of their B.Pharm course.

Photographs were taken with teachers and classmates, capturing the smiles and emotions of the day.

8. Anchoring of the Event

The program was smoothly and energetically anchored by Ms. Harshada Bhalghare and Ms. Mokshada Arjun, who are students of the T.Y. B.Pharm class. Their coordination, confidence, and warm tone helped maintain the flow of the event while keeping the audience engaged.

Their contributions helped ensure that every segment of the program transitioned smoothly and that the energy of the event remained high.

9. Vote of Thanks – Ms. Shruti Kore (T.Y. B.Pharm Class Teacher)

Towards the end of the program, Ms. Shruti Kore, class teacher of the organizing T.Y. B.Pharm students, delivered the vote of thanks. She extended her heartfelt gratitude to:

- The principal and management of the college for their support
- All teaching and non-teaching staff for their guidance
- Guest of Honour Akhade Madam for her presence
- The organizing students for their dedication
- And most importantly, the final-year students for their contributions to the college community

Her speech was filled with appreciation and hope for a successful future for the graduating batch.

10. Refreshments and Informal Interactions

The event concluded with refreshments for all students, teachers, and guests. During this time, informal conversations, laughter, and photography sessions took place. Everyone enjoyed a delicious spread of snacks and beverages. The room was filled with smiles, memories, and promises to stay in touch.
